Beating drug problem top priority, says P-Noy

By Leticia S. Alcantara

MANILA, Philippines (PNA) — President Benigno Aquino III said Monday that the government's top priority is to beat the drug problem, which he said is the most serious threat to the country's future.

Aquino, who is in his second year in office, said that the government is committed to a "zero-tolerance" policy on drugs, and that it will not be deterred by the criticism of some groups.

He said that the government is aware of the risks of a drug war, but that it is determined to win the fight against the drug trade, which he said is the most serious threat to the country's future.

China's message

The first time I saw a person with a prosthetic arm, I was struck by the way they moved. It wasn't just the arm, but the way they carried themselves, the way they interacted with the world. I realized that I was looking at a person who had overcome a significant challenge and was now living a full and active life. This realization inspired me to create a prosthetic arm that would not only function but also look like a natural part of the body. I wanted to give people with prosthetic arms the same sense of freedom and confidence that I had found in my own journey.

Pampanga ID plan faces protests

MANILA, April 10 (AP) — A plan to issue identification cards to all residents of Pampanga province has drawn the ire of local officials and residents who say it is a waste of money and a violation of privacy.

The plan, announced by the provincial government, would require every resident to have a photo ID card by the end of the year. The cards would be used for various purposes, including voting and accessing public services.

Local officials, however, are skeptical. They argue that the province's budget is already stretched thin, and that the cost of the ID cards would be a burden on the poor. They also worry that the cards could be used to track residents' movements and activities.

Residents in some areas have also expressed concern. They say that the cards would be a violation of their privacy, and that they do not want to be tracked by the government.

The provincial government has defended the plan, saying that the cards are necessary for the province to provide basic services to its residents. It also says that the cards will be free of charge.
